

International Voice-Hearing Conference - Copenhagen

29th May, 2007 from 9-16

Address: Kulturhuset, Islands Brygge 18, 2300 Copenhagen S.

The Hearing Voices Network in Denmark is host in 2007 for the annual Intervoice meeting. This provides us with the exceptional opportunity to present a conference with voice-hearers and professionals from all over the world with experience in how to help people who hear voices.

Program:

Welcome from the Voice-hearing network in Denmark

Speakers:

- Paul Baker and Caroline Von Thaysen from Intervoice on: "The Intervoice website".
- Lyn Mahboub from Australia - "User or professional - what am I?"
- Arana Pearson from New Zealand - "Development of the voice-hearing network in N.Z. and his personal recovery story"
- Ron Coleman from Scotland: "The struggle between users and professionals"
- Dirk Corstens from Holland: "Voice Dialogue - How can you talk to a voice-hearers voices?"
- Mike Smith from England: "Using a systematic approach to make sense of, and live well with your voices"
- Jacqui Dillon from England: "Self-help groups in London and her own story". (TBC)
- Merete Demant Jakobsen - anthropologist from Denmark: "Parallels between Voice-hearing and Neo-Shamanism"
- Marius Romme: "What we learned from the anthologies of recovered voice-hearers"
- Sandre Escher: "Children and voices"

The conference will be in English but it will be possible to translate comments and questions.

The cost incl. sandwich lunch, tea/coffee is 980 kroner ex. VAT, 1225 kroner incl. VAT.

Booking: Danish Hearing-voices Network
marianne@holst-olsen.dk

Payment to Laan og Spar Bank: Bank reg. No. 0400 acc. No. 4013426576
Closing date for applications: 7th May 2007

Please say when booking if you are coming to both the conference and intervoice meeting or only coming to one or the other. Thank you

