

ISPS UK 2012 Residential Conference

A great opportunity to catch up with the latest thinking in research and practice in psychological and social approaches to working with people experiencing psychosis.

2nd and 3rd October 2012

At Conference Aston, Birmingham, UK

Changing realities: new developments in psychological approaches to psychosis

Speakers include: Alison Brabban, Jacqui Dillon, Gráinne Fadden, Chris Holman, Glenn Roberts, Jaakko Seikkula

EARLY BIRD RATES UNTIL 31st MAY

The conference will include plenary sessions and parallel workshops with the emphasis on skill development in some of the newer approaches to psychological care.

Theme 1: Therapies for psychosis

- Working with dissociation and trauma
- New developments in cognitive behavioural, psychodynamic and arts therapies
- The open dialogue approach
- Mindfulness
- Mentalization
- Service user perspectives on therapy

Theme 2: Service user and carer initiatives

- Working with voices
- Recovery for carers
- Peer support groups

Theme 3: Therapeutic services

- Therapeutic relationships
- Making inpatient environments therapeutic

FOR MORE INFORMATION OR TO MAKE A BOOKING
PLEASE VISIT
www.ispsuk.org

Enquiries to:
admin@ispsuk.org