

25th Anniversary
Intervoice &
World Hearing
Voices Congress

CONGRESS WORKSHOPS

DAY ONE WORKSHOP ONE	WORKSHOP TWO	WORKSHOP THREE	WORKSHOP FOUR	WORKSHOP FIVE	WORKSHOP SIX
Anders Schakow Living with or without voices	Rachel Waddingham Working creatively to communicate with voices	Oryx Cohen & Will Hall Lessons learned from the peer support movement in the USA	Davis Storm Older people and hearing voices. A Cumbrian NHS service which has responded to voice hearers both with & without dementia	David Denborough Reclaiming lives from hostile voices: Narrative therapy approaches
DAY TWO WORKSHOP ONE	WORKSHOP TWO	WORKSHOP THREE	WORKSHOP FOUR	WORKSHOP FIVE	WORKSHOP SIX
Rufus May, Sophie Ashton and Topdog Listening to Ambassadors of Forbidden Truths	Caroline Von Taysen, Kanja Waithira, & Alfred Analo Anjere It is normal to be different. presentation of a documentary film about a network of 2 alternative MH self help projects, in Kenya	Marissa Lambert & karen Machin Peer support & Self help Highly Interactive workshop addressing the question Who is a Peer?	Elisabeth Svanholmer Journeying with sensitivity The challenges and blessings of being highly sensitive in a society that demands efficiency	Mathew Morris A quiet revolution To introduce people to the potential and possibilities for change and influencing new ideas in their services	Marina Lykovouniotti & Lilian Charitaki Give time to your experience with voices, It deserves it