

25 years

world

hearing voices day

...in Toronto

I believe Hearing voices approach is emancipatory - not only for voice hearers but also offers new roles for workers and families too

- Ron Coleman

Many voices can be unthreatening and even positive.

It's wrong to turn this into a shameful problem that people either feel they have to deny or to take medication to suppress.

- Prof Marius Romme

this event brought to you by

Leadership Project

In association with recoverynetwork:Toronto Alternatives Family Outreach and Response Housetink CRCT and... Intervoice and the worldwide hearing voices community to register

Step 1

Email, or phone bmckinnon@alternativestoronto.org 416 285 7996 x 227

Step 2: For morning session only

Send payment by cheque payable to Alternatives mail to .

Brian McKinnon
c/o Alternatives
1245 Danforth Avenue,
Toronto, Ontario,
M4J 1M8

community info 1pm to 430pm

All are welcome

Fee...

$20 Workers

free Others

Pay at the door, but please: tell us you're coming

430pm to 6pm

light buffet - free worker training 9am to 12noon

Intensive training for workers

fee $75 Includes full day limited places!

Registration required.

more info...

friday 14th september 2012

Friends House (Quaker Meeting House) 60 Lowther Avenue, Toronto

hearing voices - a global community of learning and healing

For those who hear voice, families, carers, workers and curious....

Introduction to ...

- Hearing voices as part of a range of human experience
- Living with voices
- Innovative ways of working with voices including Skype and Facebook

Connect with other events and the global hearing voices community

- Hear about what's happening across Canada
- Hear from other countries what's happening - and what's possible

intensive training for workers

Interactive, intensive workshop for workers who want to begin to incorporate hearing voices ideas, understanding, practices into their own work.

Led by Kevin Healey of recoverynetwork:Toronto - voice hearer trainer, recovery educator.

- Learn how you can understand hearing voices as a normal variation of human experience: an adaptive, even genius response to difficult and painful circumstances
- Gain insights into the voice hearing experience
- Explore how you can begin to work with someone who hears voices
- Materials provided.
- Opportunity to join a community of learning and practice.

Poster design by kevin healey

inter voice